

Ann Arbor Street Art Fair, the Original

2008 Performances on the Lawn

Stage located on the North end of Ingalls Mall Lawn

Sound provided by Jim Gibbons AVS Sound

Wednesday, July 16

12:00pm – Carillon Recital and Tour

Come be serenaded by the beautiful bells of Burton Carillon Tower, and take a tour of the tower after the recital at 12:30

1:00pm – Saline Fiddlers

The Saline Fiddlers are America's premiere youth fiddling performance show!

2:00pm – Cottonwood Cloggers

Called the true North American folk dance, clogging is a modern dance using double plated jingle taps and is danced to any music that provides a good beat.

3:00pm – Eastern Michigan Ballroom Dancers

The Eastern Michigan Ballroom Dancers will dazzle Fair-goers with a Latin and swing dance demonstration and performance.

4:00pm – First Friday Cocktails

An all-female vocal jazz quartet, the First Friday Cocktails woo audiences with swingin' and soulful a capella hits.

5:00pm - Jesse Palter Quartet

At 22 years old, Jesse Palter has grown into one of the most accomplished and dynamic singers and songwriters in the Detroit jazz scene. The winner of four Detroit Music Awards, Jesse and her quartet are sure to astound.

6:00pm - Megan MacLeod

An up-and-coming singer and songwriter, Megan MacLeod draws on her classical violin training, Irish folk music, as well as her American roots for a sound that is uniquely her own.

7:00pm – Joshua Davis and Mike Shimmin

Raised between the steely clamor of Detroit and the stillness of Michigan's pristine Upper Peninsula, Joshua Davis and his music are a rare combination of both city and country.

8:00pm – Mick Bassett and the Marthas

Mick Bassett and the Marthas play a loose, sinisterly catchy style of rock n roll rag influenced by a city they've grown to both love and hate, Detroit, MI.

Ann Arbor Street Art Fair, the Original

2008 Performances on the Lawn

Stage located on the North end of Ingalls Mall Lawn
Sound provided by Jim Gibbons AVS Sound

Thursday, July 17

12:00pm – Carillon Recital and Tour

Come be serenaded by the beautiful bells of Burton Carillon Tower, and take a tour of the tower after the recital at 12:30pm

1:00 - 4:00pm – Washtenaw Community College Music and Dance

Washtenaw Community College Dance & Music students will present a wide variety of dance and music performances.

4:00pm – Elements of Sound

A diverse and versatile group, Elements can play Top 40 to jazz, R&B to rock, and golden oldies to current hits. Bring the whole family out to dance to your favorite tunes!

5:00pm – Paul Miles

Paul Miles, "The Blues Man," has been spreading joy and peace through his blues music since coming to Detroit in 2000, and is the winner of four Detroit Music Awards.

6:00pm – Tracy Mack

Tracy Mack will blow you away with her passionate vocals and soulful lyrics, giving you a glimpse into her personal journey in life, inviting everyone in to be a part of something very special and meaningful to her.

7:00pm – Lucas Paul Band

The Lucas Paul Band combines the sounds of contemporary musicians with the older styles of artists such as Billy Joel and the Beatles.

8:00pm – Sista Otis and the Wholly Rollers

Sista Otis is a poet, storyteller, lyricist, master melody maker and improv artist from Detroit who loves to bring her Singer/Songwriter Blues inspired rock-hip hop with gospel rhythms to the people.

Ann Arbor Street Art Fair, the Original

2008 Performances on the Lawn

Stage located on the North end of Ingalls Mall Lawn

Sound provided by Jim Gibbons AVS Sound

Friday, July 18

10:00am - 12:00pm – Ann Arbor District Library Rock Band

Rock Band is the latest and greatest music videogame in the tradition of Guitar Hero and Karaoke Revolution. The Ann Arbor District Library invites you to try the game and rock out in front of the Street Art Fair audience.

12:00pm – Carillon Recital and Tour

Come be serenaded by the beautiful bells of Burton Carillon Tower, and take a tour of the tower after the recital at 12:30

1:00pm – Emerson String Orchestra

Middle and high school musicians from the Ann Arbor area serenade audiences with joyful chamber music by Bach, Mozart and Haydn.

2:00pm – Light In August

Light in August is an indie/pop trio whose lyrics are inspired by everything from Central Park to the Ganges River and their music by bands like The Beatles, Wilco and Stars.

3:00pm – The Bob Skon Trio

Bob Skon is a singer and guitarist whose style has evolved from classical, folk, rock, and country into what Bob calls “clean out the refrigerator soup.”

4:00pm – George Tait’s Mind Tapped!

George Tait has been bending the minds of audiences around the world with his "Psychological Magic" for over ten years. Don't miss the opportunity to get Mind Tapped by George Tait!

5:00 – Unveiled Bellydance Company

Unveiled Bellydance is the premiere belly dance studio in Michigan and will perform a variety of Middle Eastern dances from traditional to tribal.

6:00pm – Lightning Love

Minimal pop group from Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti delivers female fronted keyboard driven songs of love and youth.

7:00pm – N.V.R. Flo

N.V.R. Flo is an innovative hip hop dance group from Ann Arbor, MI that will blow your mind with a wide variety of styles from new school hip hop, to popping, locking, jitting and crumping.

8:00pm – Gary Prince and the Royal Family

Local guitar favorite Gary Prince serves up sizzlin' hot blues with a crew of young Ann Arbor heavies, featuring the famed Diag harmonica man, Tom Goss!

Ann Arbor Street Art Fair, the original

2008 Performances on the Lawn

Stage located on the North end of Ingalls Mall Lawn
Sound provided by Jim Gibbons AVS Sound

Saturday, July 19

11:00am – Ann Arbor School for the Performing Arts Jazz Program

Jazz combos from the Ann Arbor School for the Performing Arts Jazz Program showcase their skills developed during summer jazz classes.

12:00pm – Carillon Recital and Tour

Come be serenaded by the beautiful bells of Burton Carillon Tower, and take a tour of the tower after the recital at 12:30

1:00pm – Canterbury House's Quartet

The Jazz Mass band at Canterbury House, Quartet, plays the music of John and Alice Coltrane, Sun Ra, Albert Ayler, and other contemporary jazz musicians whose work is inspired by deep spiritual beliefs. A preview to the Canterbury House Summer Open House on Saturday, July 19 at 6pm.

2:00pm - Capoeira Mandinga Michigan

Capoeira is an art form and self-defense with strong aerobic and dance elements that balances the body, soul and mind. Don't miss Capoeira Mandinga Michigan's performance!

3:00pm – Tracy Kash Thomas

Nominated for numerous Detroit Music Awards, her unique brand of jazz and jazz-influenced rock/pop, thrills live audiences as well as her growing radio following.

4:00pm – The Jef Reynolds Combo

The Jef Reynolds Combo, a trio comprised of bassist Jef Reynolds, pianist Peter Kopera and drummer/percussionist Felice Bernardara, specializes in intimate arrangements, high-class musicianship and thoughtful interpretations of jazz classics, both traditional and modern.

5:00pm – Third Coast Kings

The Third Coast Kings are a proper deepfunk and soul group. Their sound is a raw, heavy, gritty sonic force, driven by the devastating rhythm machine that is, the Third Coast Kings.