

Prospectus: 2019 Ann Arbor Street Art Fair, the Original

OVERVIEW

The Ann Arbor Street Art Fair (AASAF) is the original of a collective of four concurrent and contiguous fairs that transform central Ann Arbor into a massive outdoor art gallery each July. Established in 1960 as part of Ann Arbor's Sidewalk Sales, the Street Art Fair quickly became a 501(c)3 non-profit arts organization with a mission of increasing public knowledge and appreciation for contemporary fine arts and fine crafts. Over the ensuing 59 years, and additional art fairs, the Original Fair has continued to focus on the art, the artists and the art buyers. Known for its consistently high quality, all original work, the Street Art Fair resides on the streets surrounding the historic Burton Carillon Tower and the tree-lined central campus of the University of Michigan and does not host sidewalk sales or vendor booths. The Street Art Fair was voted one of the "Top Ten Best Art Festivals" in the country in an USA TODAY Reader's Poll and is continually in the Art Fair Calendar "Top Ten Best Art Fairs" & Art Fair Source Books "Elite 25". In addition, we ranked 8th in the nation in the latest Sunshine Artist's "Top 100 Fine Art Shows" poll.

Booth Assignments:

- Booth spaces are assigned giving priority to these artists:
  - Ann Arbor Street Art Fair 2018 Award Winners, Re-invited artists, returning AASAF artists.

MULTIPLE APPLICATIONS

- An artist may submit two applications within one category with two significantly different bodies of work. The AASAF reserves the right to reject a second application if the bodies of work are deemed to be too similar. If this happens, the artist will be contacted in advance of jury. Both bodies of work must be juried into the Fair in order to bring both, otherwise only the juried body of work may be presented.
- An artist may also submit an application in different categories, with a three category limit. A separate application is required for each category. If multiple categories are juried into the Fair you may bring both categories of work and display them in the same booth. In the case that only one category is accepted, you may only bring the accepted category to the Fair.

COLLABORATION

- A collaborator is another artist that is an equal partner in creating the submitted work. (Beatriz throws the pot; Patrick glazes the pot.) A collaborator and an assistant are different.
- You and your collaborator's name will be listed in all material.
- Both artists must be present at the Fair.

AWARDS

- Awards of Excellence
Three independent jurors evaluate all artists' work on the opening day to select ten Excellence Award winners. All artists, regardless of category, are eligible for these awards. Each award winner receives recognition, a cash award of $800 and a re-invitation to the Fair for the following year.

JURY

Application Fee: $40 Jury Fee (submitted by 12/31) / $45 Jury Fee (submitted between 1/1 – 1/14). This fee is non-refundable.

- A separate application and fee is required for each category, with a three category limit. A separate application and fee is also required for each entry within the same category, with a two entry limit.
- Openings for new artists are available in every category each year. The 2019 Fair will be comprised of 205 artist spaces. Approximately 79 artists have been re-invited through high scores from the on-site jury, awards, peer jurying, sabbatical and the featured artist program, leaving approximately 126 artists to be invited from the ZAPplication jury process in February. An additional group of artists will be selected for the waitlist.

Jury process: The AASAF jury is unique among art fairs because it utilizes media panels, resulting in a Fair of exceptional quality.

- Three jury sessions, each comprised of specific media categories, are held. Each session is judged by four guest jurors with expertise in the media being juried and at least one member of the Street Art Fair's Jury Advisory Board. Jurors, primarily from Michigan and Ohio, are selected for their knowledge & experience in a specific media. A diversity of backgrounds and skills is sought, including artists, educators, and museum curators/directors. Juror profiles are updated on www.artfair.org in January.
- Artist applicants are anonymous.
- All five artwork images are projected simultaneously from left to right. The booth image is projected below and not scored, but is used as a reference.
- Scoring is 1 (low) to 7 (high), based on originality, creativity, design, technique, craftsmanship, and production methodology.
- Jury scores are combined and averaged.

Jurying proceeds as follows:

1. Overview: images from all re-invited artists are shown to each media panel followed by images from applicants being juried.
2. Initial scoring: Each medium is scored independently. The artist's jury statement is read while the images are shown for scoring.
3. Review and final scoring: Scored submissions are viewed a third time and discussion is encouraged. Jurors may revise their scores. Final scores are recorded. Artists with the highest scores in each category will move on to the composition session.
4. Art Fair Composition Session: The Jury Advisory Board views the highest scored work from each of the media panels. The final composition of the show and waitlist are established.

Waitlist: A single waitlist of all mediums is maintained. Artists receive their waitlist number after jurying is complete and can track their status on ZAPplication. Due to the unique situation created by multiple Ann Arbor fairs, a larger than usual waitlist is maintained and invitations are generally extended to all of the artists waitlisted.

On-site Jurying and Re-Invitations: Each artist's work is scored during the Fair, except artists whose media is scheduled for total re-jurying in the following year. On-site scoring is completed by the Jury Advisory Board, in addition to Peer Jurors. Peer Jurors are selected from invited artists to jury within their own or related categories and are issued a re-invitation for the following year.

- Re-Jurying: Each year, several categories are completely re-juried. This means that no invitations from on-site scores for a re-juried category will be issued. All media are entirely re-juried over a four-year cycle.
  - 2019: Fiber, Glass, and Digital Art
  - 2020: Jewelry, Metals, Photography
  - 2021: Mixed Media (2D and 3D), Sculpture, Clay, Furniture, Wood
  - 2022: Painting, Drawing, Printmaking

RULES FOR PARTICIPATION

Before applying, please make sure your work meets the following criteria. By applying you agree to abide by the rules, policies and decisions of the Ann Arbor Street Art Fair.

The Ann Arbor Street Art Fair, the Original, is a highly selective fine art fair. Participating artists' booths will be visited periodically throughout the fair by the Jury Advisory Board or staff to ensure compliance with the rules. Artists will be required to remove all work that is not in compliance. Persistent and/or major violation of the rules gives the AASAF the right to remove the offending artist from the Fair and deny eligibility for future fairs.

- 1) All work must be original, handcrafted work which complies with the media definitions listed in this prospectus.
- 2) Work must be designed and created by the artist solely, in partnership with a collaborator, or with assistants working under the DIRECT supervision of the artist in the artist's OWN studio.
- 3) No reproductions of original work are allowed to be sold. This includes, but is not limited to, giclee and off-set prints. Refusal to remove reproductions, when asked to do so, gives the AASAF the right to remove the offending artist from the Fair and deny eligibility for future fairs.
- 4) No commercial products are allowed.
- 5) Artists may only show work in categories approved by the Jury.
- 6) All work exhibited must be of the quality and type of that shown in the juried images. The AASAF reserves the right to ask an artist to remove work that does not meet this requirement. Failure to remove said work gives the AASAF the right to remove the offending artist from the Fair and deny eligibility for future fairs.
- 7) Artists must prominently display an Artist Statement, with the artist's picture, describing how and by whom the work is made and the materials used to make the work.
- 8) Artists must be present with their work for the entire four days of the Fair. If the work is collaborative, each collaborator must be present. All artists must check in at Registration upon arrival. Photo ID is required.

- 9) If you produce work in editions, you must disclose edition numbers to the Fair audience and include in your work descriptions.
- 10) Card racks are not allowed.
- 11) Artists may not show in other fairs, exhibitions or events in Ann Arbor taking place at the same time as the Ann Arbor Street Art Fair.
